ACTIVITY: MEMORY VERSE REVIEW

WHAT YOU NEED: NO SUPPLIES NEEDED

What You Do:

- SAY: We've got a new memory verse for the month. Let's say it and do some fun motions together.
- SAY: "I will give thanks (Move flat hand forward from chin) to the LORD (Point up) with my whole heart. (Tap heart twice) Psalms 133:1 (Open hands like a book)."
- Repeat the verse and motions several times to practice it.
- The Bible teaches us that we can thank God for everything with our whole heart! That means family, friends, food, and people who help us! We can thank God for everything!
- SAY TOGETHER: Who can thank God for everything? I can thank God for everything.

PRAYER

Dear God,

Thank you for stories in the Bible that teach us about You and how we can thank you for everything, Today I want to thank you for my family and my friends. Thank you for bringing them into my life. Help us to be loving to one another. In Jesus name, Amen!

ACTIVITY: KINDNESS HARVEST CRAFT

WHAT YOU NEED: BROWN PAPER BAG, YELLOW PAPER, SCISSORS, GLUE, CRAYONS

What You Do:

- SAY: Ruth was kind to Naomi and went with her to a new place. Ruth worked hard in the fields to gather grain so they would have food. God took care of them because they cared for each other!
- ASK:
 - "Who was kind in our story?"
 - "How can we show kindness at home?"
- SAY: Now let's make a craft to remind us to be kind like Ruth!
 - First, let's decorate the brown bag. This will be our "grain bag."
 - Now, let's cut the yellow paper into strips. These will be our "pieces of grain."
 - On each strip, we'll draw or write a way we can be kind — like sharing toys, helping clean up, or giving hugs.
 - Now put your "kindness grain" into your bag.
- SAY: Let's play a kindness game! Each day this week, you can pull out one piece of "grain" from your bag and do the kind thing you wrote or drew.
- Ruth was kind to Naomi, and God took care of them both. When we are kind, we show God's love to others too!
