We Remember
1 Thessalonians 1:3

“Since local churches are made up of human beings, saved by God’s grace, no church is perfect. But some churches are closer to the New Testament ideal than others.”

-Warren Wiersbe

“remembering without ceasing your work of faith, labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the sight of our God and Father”

I. He remembered their conversion.

“...work of faith...”

II. He remembered their compassion.

“...labor of love...”

III. He remembered their confidence.

“...patience of hope...”
